

~P R O C L A M A T I O N~

WHEREAS, Since the founding of our country, Americans from all walks of life – including government officials – have turned to prayer and reflection in both times of calm and change to show gratitude and seek strength about public and private matters large and small; and

WHEREAS, Faith and prayers can ease the fear, threats and challenges Clark County residents and families confront each day, helping us resist cynicism and despair and face life with insight, courage and hope; and

WHEREAS, Prayer and thoughtful reflection can help us see God in everyone and move us work to improve the social and economic conditions here for everyone, mending the deep divides in our community and across the nation with compassion, tolerance and good will; and

WHEREAS, This Clark County Council encourages county residents who believe in prayer to offer prayer and thanks for the abundant blessings of the past and seek blessings and healing in the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Clark County Council, hereby proclaim February 23-25, 2018 as a weekend of reflection and prayer in Clark County, Washington, and urge residents to engage in activities that bring hope, promote benevolence, demonstrate empathy and strengthen the bonds of our community.

Signed this 13th day of February 2018

CLARK COUNTY COUNCIL
CLARK COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Marc Boldt, Chair

Jeanne E. Stewart, District 1

Julie Olson, District 2

John Blom, District 3

Eileen Quiring, District 4

